PROMOTION EXERCISE 2019

The evaluation period ends on March 29. The promotion procedure is to be officially launched in April.

As usual this will generate a series of tensions that will go on till October, when the promotion committee will have finished examining all applications and appeals whose numbers increase every year due to introduction of discomfort among the staff.

The main problem is to distribute 5% of successful.

As in DG HR two commanditaires will decide to approve this plan, the whole process of the approval can be given before the end of the current government's mandate.

The provisional campus has to remedy several matters, such as congestion and overcrowding of the other European Schools and we repeat, parents have to be genuinely involved in the decision making process.

A final decision should not be delayed by the new Commissariat site will only be available in 2023. The educational success of our children must be a priority!

EUROPEAN SCHOOLS EPISODE 2 BUT STILL NO ENDING!

Further to our previous text on the European Schools' campus near Arlo-Léopold, the "quick-fix" solution has been put on hold. The intention was to place senior year pupils (S5-S6) S7's, in a provisional campus building near Arlo-Loi.

However, it appears that the Belgian "Règie des Bâtiments" has declared itself responsible for governmental permissions did not receive the necessary change-of-use permit for this building.

The "Règie" is now considering a second option, i.e to use existing premises on the NATO site already in place (Brussels Airport) and not the European school), supplement the solution – which TAO-ART already advocated in its previous text – would have the classic
